- 4.0 Local and Regional Planning
- 4.1 ON TO 2050 – Plan Development
- 4.1.1 Demographic Trends Snapshot Report
CMAP staff, Elizabeth Schuh, will present of the Demographic Trends Snapshot Report (available here). The report highlights four key themes that will inform the development of ON TO 2050: our region’s population growth has slowed due to a declining birth rate and continued domestic outmigration; our region is aging (as are peer regions); there are changing immigration patterns where Asian immigrants are the fastest growing immigrant group; and our region is increasingly diverse with divergent outcomes for different races and ethnicities.
SUGGESTED ACTION: Information and discussion
- 4.1.2 Travel Trends Snapshot Report and Alternative Futures

CMAP staff, Elizabeth Irvin, will present of the Travel Trends Snapshot Report (available here). Ms. Irvin will also present on the “Alternative Futures” approach, developed (as part of ON TO 2050) to assess and describe broader changes that may affect the region, identify strategies to mitigate or prepare for negative impacts and capitalize on opportunities, and engage residents on these issues. Ms. Irvin will focus on the alternative future (one of the five) that asks, “What would happen to our region in the year 2050 ... more people chose walkable, mixed-use communities?”

SUGGESTED ACTION: Information and discussion

4.2.3 CMAP ON TO 2050 – Non-Motorized Transportation Snapshot Report

CMAP staff and project manager, Lindsay Bayley, will give an update on the Non-Motorized Transportation Snapshot Report, introduced at the last Task Force meeting. The report, like other Snapshots, will look at recent changes, regional trends, and current conditions, to help define further research needs for ON TO 2050. The report compares conditions and practices in our region and highlights changes in bicycling and walking between 2010 and now. The topic of the report responds to regional interests as expressed in public forums and outreach activities related to ON TO 2050.

SUGGESTED ACTION: Information and discussion

4.3 Kane-Kendall Council of Mayors

Patrick Knapp, Transportation Planner/Planning Liaison with Kane County DOT and Kane Kendall Council of Mayors, will present on recent KKCOM and KDOT initiatives to promote bicycling and walking. These efforts include updates to the Fox River Trail Signage Program, KKCOM STP Methodology, and KDOT’s Long Range Transportation Plan. Patrick will also talk about recently constructed and programmed bike/ped projects.
